Your online store and My Gebi Market

Sell beyond your street, with the same app.

Turn your store on

- Store tab turn the store on. Your link: `mygebi.com/s/your-shop` and a QR code.
- Add delivery and its fee, and the shop Telebirr number buyers pay to.
- Business profile: logo, a photo of the shop front, opening hours, Telegram or Instagram.
- Shop location: stand inside the shop and tap "Use my current location".

Items that sell

- Store Items Add item: name, price, category, up to 6 photos, description.
- Choices for clothes or flavours: Size, Colour…
- How you sell it: fixed price, offers (buyers offer less; you answer), or auction.
- Short names, clear photos, details filled in (amount, pack, size, brand).
- Stopped selling something? Open it Delete. Old sales and reports keep it.

Orders, step by step

1. The till beeps for each order or offer.
2. Accept It is ready Handed over: it is saved as a normal sale.
3. Delivery? Hand it to your courier or to a My Gebi delivery partner; the buyer gives the courier a 4-digit code.

Example: Selam Boutique put 20 dresses online on Friday. On Sunday a buyer from CMC offered 5,800 for a 6,500 kemis. Selam replied 6,200, the buyer accepted, and a courier delivered it the same afternoon.

My Gebi Market

- `mygebi.com/market` shows items from every open store, by department.
- To be listed: a photo, a department, the kind of item and how many you have.
- Add the brand and the country it was made in: buyers search for it.
- The blue Verified tick: call My Gebi to have your ID or trade licence checked.

What it costs

- Your first 10 online orders are free, then 5% of each finished order (items only).
- You see and pay it on the Store tab.
- If too much is unpaid, new online orders pause until you pay.
